Dear Sir

Confirmation of Request to Discontinue Debt Review Subsequent to the Declaration of Over indebtedness as per Section 86(7) of the National Credit Act

We confirm having received, assessed and submitted your Application for Debt Review on the 2020-10-17 in accordance with the provisions of Section 86 of the National Credit Act and accordingly confirm that:

1. All your Credit Providers have been notified of your Application;
2. Your information has been provided to the National Credit Regulator who has notified various credit bureaux;
3. We have assessed and determined that you are over indebted, as required by Section 86 (6) of the National Credit Act;
4. Upon receipt of your cancellation request we confirm that we have suspended all work on your behalf;
5. Withdrawal Guidelines 002/2015 issued by the National Credit Regulator note that a consumer cannot withdraw or terminate the Debt Review Process after the declaration of Over Indebtedness;
6. It is therefore necessary to advise you of the possible consequences which may result from your intention to discontinue the Debt Review Application;
7. The potential consequences mentioned in 6 above include :
 - 7.1. The risk of termination of your Debt Review by your Credit Providers;
 - 7.2. Should any of your Credit Providers terminate your Debt Review they may proceed with debt enforcement procedures;
 - 7.3. You are liable for the contractual obligations to your credit providers and any arrears accumulated;
 - 7.4. You will be unable to obtain further credit;
 - 7.5. The Debt Counsellor will remain on your record.
8. You are required to contact your Credit Providers to make payment arrangements.
9. You are liable for the outstanding debt counselling fees, which we confirm is R496.78 including VAT
10. In addition, you are liable for attorney's costs in the sum of Rxxx.
11. Kindly make payment of these amounts to the following accounts:
